

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, September 17, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Liability remains sticking point

Hinds will be first in nation to use wireless voting machines in Nov.

77 of 82 counties reporting West Nile

Editorials

Tort reform: Basis of 'compromise' is too high

No problem?: UMC doctors show otherwise

Iraq: U.N. forum produces legitimacy

The Sun Herald Biloxi

A light at end of the tunnel?

Talks to continue on Day 13 of Mississippi special session

'Winner take all' is a loser

This is a campaign to savor

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

No changes in effort to reach malpractice agreement

Small steps made toward special session compromise

Mississippi tort reform politicized -- and likely settled

EDITORIAL: Leadership must press for fair compromises

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Miss. lawmakers add urgency to tort reform

Hattiesburg American

Voters will hold leaders accountable

Budget cuts hurt agency

Meridian Star

Laurel Leader-Call

Conferees to try again on reform compromise

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

The Clarksdale Press Register

Greed talk may backfire on plaintiff lawyers

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

VIRUS: Learn West Nile 's 4-P antidote

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

C'mon, let's make a deal

Enterprise Journal McComb

Malpractice bill compromise stalls again Committee set to meet Tues.

The Natchez Democrat

Read Our View

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Private prisons may go unfunded during appeal

Conferees try again to agree on medical malpractice bill

How much would it cost to re-open Delta Correctional Facility?"

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Day 12

Gov Bill Allain says "They need to go out and buy a tent - It's just like a circus"

TATE COUNTY: "It is obvious that the House, bowing to their rich and powerful trial lawyer special interest buddies, wants the smallest change possible in Mississippi's inequitable civil justice system which is so weighted in favor of the rich and powerful trial lawyers"

GWCOC: Lawmakers can act outside call, why did Mike Moore ignore Supreme Court precedent?

Haley Barbour to speak to MSU students

Stateline.org

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times